To ensure compliance with applicable regulations, country laws, and grant regulations each new project has an established budget which details allowable costs. Field Offices are required to obtain Headquarter pre-approval for the monthly expenses incurred in the field.

The actual vs. budget reports are reviewed on a monthly basis by the regional Finance and Operation Director and any under/overspent is discussed with the Country Project Managers, the Headquarter program team and the Executive Director.

Funds are transferred from MedGlobal Headquarters to the field offices as per a fund request approved by the head of the program and reviewed by the HQ Program and finance team. Before submitting any new request, Field Offices must provide support documents to clear the initial request. All program activities and expenses are monitored against budget and grant documents to ensure full compliance with the terms and conditions of each grant. Segregation of duties is required at both levels: Headquarter and fields offices.

Subrecipients:

Once the oversight committee identifies the correct Subrecipient, the Subrecipient is required to provide their recent audit reports and a proof of registration that they are legally allowed to work in the area of implementation.

High-risk subrecipients are identified prior to dealing with any new partners by conducting pre-award risk assessment and background check as well as reviewing the partners annual reports and the historical programs to ensure that the partners have the ability to implement the project activities.
